

5 Days

2274: Managing a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 Environment

This 5-day instructor-led course enables you to learn the skills and knowledge essential to manage the accounts and resources in a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 environment. It includes the tasks like managing users, group accounts, network resources, printers, the organizational unit based on AD DS, and also implementation of group policy to manage the users and computers.

Course Objective:

On completion of this course, you will be able to

- Create and manage groups
- Populate organizational units to the users and computer accounts
- Manage users, computer, groups accounts
- Implement and manage printing
- Use Group policy, audit accounts and resources
- And more

Course Details

Course Outline

- Module 1: Introduction to Administering Accounts and Resources
- Module 2: Managing User and Computer Accounts
- Module 3: Managing Groups
- Module 4: Managing Access to Resources
- Module 5: Implementing Printing
- Module 6: Managing Printing
- Module 7: Managing Access to Objects in Organizational Units
- Module 8: Implementing Group Policy
- Module 9: Managing the User Environment by Using Group Policy
- Module 10: Implementing Administrative Templates and Audit Policy

Who Should Attend

- System Administrator
- System Engineer

Pre Requisite

The participating individual must have

- A+ certification or equivalent knowledge and skills
- Network+ certification or equivalent knowledge and skills

464, Udyog Vihar Phase
V, Gurgaon (Delhi
NCR)-122016, India

+91 8882 233 777

training@mercury.co.in www.mercurysolutions.co

Date - May 04, 2025